Job Title: Patrol Officer
Department: UW Police Services
Reports To: Manager, Police Operations
Jobs Reporting: Shift Supervisor – Supervisor
Salary Grade: USG 7
Effective Date: November 2018

Primary Purpose
The Patrol Officer is responsible for preserving the peace and upholding law and order on University of Waterloo property. It is a Patrol Officer’s responsibility to enforce the Criminal Code of Canada, provincial statutes, City of Waterloo by-law’s and the policies of the University of Waterloo. This provides an environment of the highest possible security for members of a diverse university community and its visitors. The Patrol Officer must keep the Shift Sergeant advised on the state of safety and security of the University of Waterloo property during their shift, with details of problems found and the corrective action taken or recommended.

Key Accountabilities

Responsible for maintaining law and order on University of Waterloo property, providing an environment of the highest possible security for members of a diverse university community and its visitors by:

- Enforcing the Criminal Code of Canada, provincial statutes, City of Waterloo by-law’s and the policies of the University of Waterloo.
- Preventing and deterring crime by completing frequent foot, vehicle and bicycle patrols of the University of Waterloo property.
- Responding to calls for service on University property, 24hrs a day, 365 days a year.
- Handling complaints from the university community, providing a resolution or mediation.
- Completing general occurrence reports accurately and concisely.
- Investigating crime-related occurrences on University of Waterloo property and interviewing and interrogating witnesses, victims and suspects.
- Collecting, preserving, processing and maintaining continuity of evidence.
- Assisting other emergency services when they attend University of Waterloo property.

Provide a customer service based approach to the university community and its visitors, assisting individuals or groups by:

- Assisting faculty, staff and students facing unexpected situations.
- Providing traffic and crowd control to provide efficient movement throughout the campus.
- Attending student orientations to give presentations on the Police Service.

*All employees of the University are expected to follow University and departmental health and safety policy, procedures and work practices at all times. Employees are also responsible for the completion of all health and safety training, as assigned. Employees with staff supervision and/or management responsibilities will ensure that assigned staff abide by the above, and actively identify, assess and correct health and safety hazards, as required.

Required Qualifications

Education
Job Description

- Graduation from a recognized Police College or Academy, or a diploma from a recognized Community College Law Enforcement/Police Foundations two-year program or equivalent education and experience required.
- Current standard level of first aid certification and current basic rescuer level CPR.
- Successfully completed and have a current, valid certificate of ATS for the position of “Special Constable” inclusive of General Aptitude Test Battery (GATB), the Written Process Test (WPT) and Physical Fitness Test.
- Valid Ontario G class Driver's Licence required.

Experience

- Previous experience in a police and/or security environment an asset.
- Excellent communication and human relations skills including proven success in mediation of sensitive situations is essential. Proven abilities relating to a student population and experience working with a diverse population. Sound judgment, problem solving and organizational skills.
- Must be able to work rotating shifts and overtime as required.
- Will be required to meet the standards of acceptance as a Special Constable under the Ontario Police Services Act including an acceptable result from a criminal records check.
- Must have valid class G or higher Ontario Driver's License and acceptable driving history.
- Physical fitness and psychological testing are part of selection process.
- Depending on experience and training, successful candidates may be required to successfully complete further formal training to meet requirements of the Department.
- Ability to work with minimal supervision.
- Ability to make necessary decisions while under pressure and in the face of uncertainty.

Knowledge/Skills/Abilities

- The Patrol Officer exhibits qualities such as honesty, integrity, responsibility, trustworthiness, leadership, confidence, patience, attention to detail, self-discipline, excellent analytical and problem solving skills, negotiating skills, conflict avoidance skills, resolution and mediation skills, excellent written and verbal communication skills and willing to work within a community policing model/framework.
- Basic MS Word
- D3 Incident Reporting Software
- AIMS Automated Issuance Software
- Aimetis Symphony Client Camera Software
- Average Level of Computer Proficiency

Nature and Scope

- Contacts: UW entire campus community, Waterloo Regional Police Services, Emergency Services, University community members and other law enforcement agencies.
- Level of Responsibility: Responsible for enforcing the Criminal Code of Canada, provincial statutes, City of Waterloo by-law's and the policies of the University of Waterloo. Provide an environment of the highest possible security for members of a diverse university community and its visitors. Knowledgeable and accountable for their actions. Arrests, detention and investigations must be conducted in accordance with the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, current federal laws, provincial statutes, judge’s rules and university policies. Arranging counselling and assistance for people in distress. Behave in a manner that does not bring discredit to their Police Service or to themselves while on and off duty. The Patrol Officer's character and conduct must be exemplary, as any unlawful conduct could cause the Patrol Officer to forfeit their status as a Special Constable under the Ontario Police Services Act. Unrestricted access to the entire University as well as access to highly
Job Description

Sensitive information requiring a strict level of confidentiality and bestowing a great deal of responsibility and trust. Occasionally responsible for handling and transporting large sums of money.

- Decision-Making Authority: The Patrol Officer determines the appropriate response and solutions to situations and queries that are brought to their attention. Authority to use discretion and exercise it while enforcing all authorized laws and university policies on campus. Prioritizing calls for service and assigned tasks based on level of severity and possible risk.

- Physical and Sensory Demands: Exposure to long periods of standing, walking and sitting. Maintain a reasonable level of physical fitness to restrain a violent person and use physical force. Requires exertion of physical or sensory effort resulting in extreme fatigue, strain or risk of injury.

- Working Environment: Occasionally there is unavoidable exposure to dangerous situations or to hazardous substances and environments. Occasionally there is unavoidable exposure to dangerous or unpleasant environmental elements such as infections or disease, bodily fluids, fire, noise or air pollutants, chemicals, odours, extreme temperatures, adverse weather conditions for driving and for outdoor work. Exposure to crisis situations, emotionally disturbing experiences and/or interactions with people who are emotionally upset, angry, abusive, aggressive, mentally unstable or unpredictable. Disruptions in lifestyle due to working 12 hour rotating shifts, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, affects the individual's dietary, sleeping, social and exercise patterns. Lack of control over work pace due to unpredictable, irregular and/or high call volumes. Required to wear a Police uniform and operate a highly visible marked police vehicle.