Nature and Scope
- Contacts: The Co-ordinator, Graduate Financial Aid & Awards interacts directly with all members of the GSPA awards team; Associate Vice-President and Assistant Vice-Presidents, Graduate Studies and Postdoctoral Affairs; Faculty Associate Deans, Graduate Studies; members of other functional areas of GSPA including Admissions, Records, Communications, Systems; and other staff across campus. The incumbent participates as a staff resource in scholarship committee selection meetings and may be asked to attend and participate in Graduate Operations Committee meetings as appropriate. S/he acts as a resource and provides direction within GSPA and to department/Faculty administrators. Using a patient and collaborative approach, the incumbent must communicate awards procedures and administrative instructions to students, staff and faculty members in order to achieve a high level of accuracy and understanding. The co-ordinator is a liaison with external agencies for the award programs under her/his management.
- Level of Responsibility: The Co-ordinator, Graduate Financial Aid & Awards works closely with and offers support to the Assistant Director, Graduate Financial Aid & Awards and to the Managers, Graduate Financial Aid & Awards Programs. The incumbent is responsible for ensuring that set guidelines and eligibility criteria are met in the review and adjudication of award competitions. S/he must ensure accuracy as s/he will be providing input to the Associate Vice-President and Assistant Vice-Presidents, Graduate Studies and Postdoctoral Affairs and to the Faculty Associate Deans, Graduate Studies for planning and decision-making. The incumbent is responsible for ensuring that set guidelines and eligibility criteria are met in the review, adjudication and assessment of internal and external award programs. S/he is responsible for the hiring and supervising of work-study students each term to assist with award programs as appropriate.
- Decision-Making Authority: The Co-ordinator, Graduate Financial Aid & Awards works closely with the Associate Vice-President and Assistant Vice-Presidents Graduate Studies and Postdoctoral Affairs in determining allocations of awards to departments/Faculties as appropriate and in determining the implementation and impact of any significant changes to administrative procedures for award programs. The incumbent makes decisions on eligibility matters based upon advertised criteria and award regulations. The incumbent continually makes decisions about the most effective methods of operationalizing initiatives for which s/he is responsible.

- Physical and Sensory Demands: Demands typical of an administrative position within an office environment – extensive sitting and concentrated attentive use of one or more senses while doing computer work; dealing with interruptions. Concentrated attention to detail is required in an office environment with competing and changing priorities. The incumbent must be able to manage concurrent assignments and prioritize workloads in order to meet deadlines. Adherence to timelines and deadlines is imperative as is attention to detail and ability to problem solve.

- Working Environment: Travel: minimal. Psychological Risks: The incumbent must be sensitive to the often extreme and prolonged stresses due to volume, deadlines, demands and interruptions (e.g., phone calls, e-mails, student assistance at the front counter and unplanned but urgent support request throughout the day). This role involves interactions with people who may be upset or aggressive (e.g., students who have escalated an issue, staff or faculty upset with a decision). Working Hours: regular working hours; overtime during peak periods may be required.
