Job Description

Graduate Academic Services and Associate Vice-President Graduate Studies and Postdoctoral Affairs regarding the overall operating budget within GSPA. The incumbent ensures that financial activity undertaken follows accepted accounting principles as well as university policies and guidelines. Based on the data analysis and budget forecasting the incumbent provides, senior administrators rely upon him/her to provide input on available options to support their decisions. S/he determines the optimal course of action to solve problems and makes recommendations to other stakeholders.

- Decision-Making Authority: The Graduate Financial Officer makes financial management decisions and oversees all expenditures from endowments, trusts and operating accounts managed within GSPA. S/he determines available Faculty or department budget based on formulas for university-wide awards paid from operating accounts. Through the management and reconciliation and forecasting of the GSPA operating budget, s/he provides recommendations concerning the direction and utilization of the funds. The decisions the incumbent makes are based on multiple factors: relevant policies, government regulations, strategic objectives. At times, these objectives are competing, so a sound judgement is required. The incumbent makes recommendations about timing and format of actions including but not limited to financial scenarios, carryover and new budget requests. The incumbent continually makes decisions about effective methods of operationalizing initiatives for which s/he is responsible.

- Physical and Sensory Demands: Demands typical of an administrative position within an office environment – extensive sitting and concentrated attentive use of one or more senses while doing computer work; dealing with interruptions. Concentrated attention to detail is required in an office environment with competing priorities. The incumbent must be able to manage concurrent assignments and prioritize workloads in order to meet deadlines. Adherence to timelines and deadlines is imperative as is attention to detail and ability to problem solve. The university operates in a decentralized environment in terms of decision-making and centralized environment in terms of establishing standards, policies, procedures and financial systems. Consequently, the accounting and technical skills across university units of those dealing with financial matters vary significantly. Due to the nature and complexities of the university business activities, disagreements and contentious issues and situations may arise from time to time due to differing interpretations of policies and procedures.

- Working Environment: Travel: minimal. Psychological Risks: The incumbent must be sensitive to the often extreme and prolonged stresses due to volume, deadlines, demands and interruptions (e.g., phone calls, e-mails, student assistance at the front counter and unplanned but urgent support request throughout the day). This role involves interactions with people who may be upset or aggressive (e.g., students who have escalated an issue, staff or faculty upset with a decision) or providing suggestions to direct reports who are working with upset clients. Working Hours: regular working hours; overtime during peak periods may be required.
